

"The simple truth is that Christ died for all of us or He died for none of us." Alan Chambers, God's Grace and the Homosexual Next Door

(I) AN IMMEDIATE ANSWER:

If anyone truly loves God they would know that you're supposed to treat your neighbor as ______ (1).

The true answer to our question, "Does God love you, if you're gay, is ______ (2)." But if you are like most people, you probably need more than [Jonathan Ervin's] word for it . .

(II) LOOKING DEEPER:

- (A) If you don't believe in God, here's big question you have to answer: "How did everything, including us, ______ (3)?"
- (B) Now, certainly, there are many views regarding life's origin . . . consider something we can all relate to our ______ (4), a ball in the sky, spinning at a thousand miles an hour. The movement of this huge mass is so ______ (5) that we set our watches by it. All this is beyond remarkable and beyond ______ (6).
 (1) "If the universe is simply an ______ (7), the odds against it containing any appreciable order are ludicrously ______(8)." Dr Gerald Schroeder

- (C) It is also important to note that just as God created and ordered the ______ (9) universe, He created the human body as well. Your body is composed of tens of trillions of cells with incomprehensible ______ (10) yet it works with miraculous efficiency.
- (D) One popular world-view, ______ (11), says that your body came into existence from ______ (12) and by chance. However, this unrealistic theory ignores the face that nothing can't produce ______ (13).
- (E) You also have an inner need for purpose and a desire to live _____ (14) and be something great. Atheism offers no explanation for these inner desires.
- (F) Atheists would say that there is no ultimate ______ (15) and would therefore also have to say that there's no true moral _____ (16). In the atheist world-view, there's no basis for right and wrong.

- (G) Nothing else makes logical sense except to believe that God created [us] and that we ______ (17) to Him.
- (H) If there is a God, then wouldn't that God . . . naturally seek to ______
 - (18) with us, His creation, and have the ability to do so?

(III) EVIDENCE OF GOD'S COMMUNICATION:

- (A) His _____ (19) communicated in the world around
- (B) His _____ (20) in the rising and the setting of the sun each day
- (C) His steadfastness in the new buds that bloom each Spring
- (D) [We] hear His ______ (21) in the songs that the birds and crickets
- (E) His magnitude through the rush of wind through the trees
- (F) [We] feel His _____ (22) through the people He puts in [our lives]

But even beyond all this, God has clearly communicated what is best for us.

- (G) God desires to communicate ______ (23) to us and through us. Despite its ______ (24) authors the Bible, as a unified whole, shares ______ (25) complete story, backed by archaeology, hundreds of fulfilled prophecies, supportive secular testimony . . . and it is, by far, the most preserved record of all-time, describing humanity and the human ______ (26 perfectly.
- (H) Since God created us, He knows what is _____ (27) for us.
- (I) "Just because you are ______ (28) to do something doesn't mean that's what is ______ (29) for you."
- (J) One of the areas that is very important to both God and us is our ______ (30). Sex is a supremely powerful force in human experience. The power of sex can be used for both the greatest ______ (31) in the human experience, or when misused for the greatest evil.
- (K) We would all agree that while sex and _____ (32) cannot be equated, human beings are designed to experience love and sex together.
- (L) God establishes boundaries for us, both because he loves us, including very clear boundaries on the expression of ______ (33). God knows that fallen sexual activities are not going to truly fulfill us and do not enable us to have and maintain loving and stable ______ (34).

- (M) Homosexuality is one of many distortions of sex as God intended it for His human creation.
- (N) Jesus refers back to ______ (35) where God clearly established that a male and female as husband and wife would join in ______ (36) union. Jesus upholds sexual relations only between and man and a woman, and only in marriage.
- (O) The boundaries for sex that God gives in the Bible . . . are established to ______ (37) us from painful consequences. Study after study has shown many serious health risks associated with homosexual activity.
 - (1) These risks include:
 - (a) A _____ (38) increase in anal cancer (_____ (39) that for those who are HIV Positive)
 - (b) AIDS . . . majority of cases being contracted by men who have sex with _____(40)
 - (c) Life expectancy lowed by _____ (41) years
- (P) Augustine once said of God: "You have made us for _____ (42) and our hearts are restless until they _____ (43) in You."
- (Q) If you are honest with yourself . . . sex has neither fulfilled your innermost ______
 (44), nor your deepest hurts. . . as long as your pursue sex, money, status, or any-thing else instead of the God who made you, you will continue to experience, at best, _______
 (45) in life, and at worst . . . destructive _______

(IV) WHAT GOD OFFERS US

- (A) . . . a way out of Hell both here and now, and for eternity.
- (B) He is the _____ (47) that you need. Jesus never lied, never cheated, . . . never stole . . . Jesus never sinned.
- (C) The _____ (48) you need to live for Christ will come to you through the Holy Spirit
